Join this fair dedicated to independent publishers, artists and skills linked to books.

Books will fill the museum for a weekend. Not any book: those created outside the usual publishing network (creative writing, micro edition, artists' books...). For two days, the town becomes a playground for all things linked to words, stories and illustrations.

Mariemont's book market also is...

- an event gathering exhibitors from all around the world.
- editors, illustrators, bookbinders, book artists... working on adult/children/art/poetry/theatre... literature will share their experience
- animations for all: workshops, readings, exhibitions, visits of the archives, shows.

A market sure to delight all literature lovers.
