Hastière Children's Carnival offers the youngest of the town and elsewhere a unique and festive moment around folklore and traditions. On the program: procession, treats and cinema screening.

A Mardi Gras for children

Every year in February, the children's carnival procession enlivens the villages of Hastière-Lavaux and Hastière par-Delà. A hundred disguised children gather at 2 p.m. then walk through the nearby streets.

Then comes the traditional treat: pineapple waffles and hot chocolate.

The day ends with the projection of a movie on a big screen.
