This procession of 150 to 200 horseriders pays tribute to the patron of the village: Saint Renelde.

Pilgrimage around Saintes

This procession takes place on Trinity Sunday, a week after Pentecost.

- Preceded by the riders' mass, it begins at 7:30 a.m. to the sound of the musician-riders
- Walking by the shrine of Saint-Renelde, the procession then makes a 28 km journey during which it reaches the neighboring towns before returning to the church of Saintes
