This exceptional museum, at the heart of the historical quarters of Namur, dedicates its collections to Félicien Rops, a famous Belgian artist from the 19th century.

Visit and activities

The museum's dynamic scenography regroups important themes in the artist's career: his time as a caricaturist in Brussels, the consecration of his talent in Paris, women, love, desire and death. Visitors will be given audio guides, rich in anecdotes and information on Félicien Rops' life.

Virtual visit

Discover the Dames de pantin (1873-1890) in virtual reality: this new approach to art is accessible to everyone.

A cycling trail

Discover Felicien Rops' Namur)the house where he was born, the schools he went to...) thanks to a free cycling map.

And more

The museum also organises guided tours, temporary exhibitions and has a documentation centre and art-themed movie club.
