The Extraordinary Film Festival is the only international film festival focusing on disability and difference.

This biannual event aims at “changing our view of disability” thanks to a selection of high-quality Belgian and foreign cinematographic works, where all genres are covered from fiction to documentary via experimental.

On the TEFF program

The program includes the screening of numerous films from different nationalities as well as:

- a temporary exhibition of exceptional works of art
- various competitions and prizes
- entertainment and shows
- school educational sessions

- and many guests: actors, authors, directors...
