In an exceptional setting of the Belgian Ardennes, this 18-hole course is situated in the former park of the Castle of Ardenne, built by King Leopold II.

Inaugurated in 1895 with just 9 holes, the course was finished in 1992. The technical course is composed of varied holes that offer beautiful views and absolute tranquillity. The route takes remarkable advantage of the naturally uneven terrain amidst hundreds of often rare trees. The golfer will also encounter vestiges of the past : the chapel, the open-air theatre, a porphyry lamppost, a cast-iron fountain ... The setting is, in a word, exceptional. The terrace of the Léopold Tower, where the clubhouse is located, offers a superb view for miles over the surrounding countryside.
