Between Nivelles and La Louvière, the fortified castle of Ecaussinnes-Lalaing delights visitors with its medieval setting and its stunning 18th century vegetable garden.

The castle

This medieval fortress rises on the foundations of an old fortified castle and keeps the memory of the great families who lived there.

Visitors can explore the castle freely or with a guide: the ground floor is dedicated the Middle Ages, while the first floor focuses on the 17th century. Various collections (porcelain, glass, tools, furniture, etc.) are exhibited there and retrace daily life in the castle through the ages.

The vegetable garden

It can be visited on request. This 1 hectare romantic space overlooking the Seneffe valley dates back to the 18th century and consists of:

- apple trees
- local species of pear trees
- cherry trees
- a vegetable garden
- pretty flowers in season...
- statues of Roman deities in niches or on pedestals.

The castle and the vegetable garden are listed as exceptional heritage of the Parks & Gardens in Wallonia.
