Take a journey through time at the Petit Moulin d'Arenberg in Rebecq and its neighboring beer house.

The Petit Moulin d'Arenberg is a real vestige of medieval economic activity. Thanks to the work of a few enthusiasts, visitors can see how a mill from the beginning of the last century operated.

The impressive machinery rotates thanks to the nearby Senne river. Let the miller teach you the manufacturing processes of the time. The evolution of millstones over time and quite simply how the grain became flour.

The Beer House

The annex of the Petit Moulin include renovated stable and the beer house.

Nestled in the cave of the Petit Moulin, in collaboration with local brewery Lefèbvre, the site reveals some secrets about breweing and bottling.

An explanatory film, didactic panels, period tools, antiques, unusual collections make the visit even more enjoyable.
