This 5 km didactif trail in the Neûr-Lowé fagne will reveal how these landscapes were created.

History

Oak, birch and beech trees used to grow here a long time ago. Local villages started exploiting this incredible resource in medieval time:

- cutting down woodlands to make space for cereal fields
- harvesting hay and bedding for animals
- grazing fields...

Good to know

- Start from the Botrange nature centre
- Not accessible when the temperatures are too high (risk of
