In Han-sur-Lesse, a stone's throw from Rochefort, visitors can explore an underground cave famous throughout the world and ranked 3 stars in the Michelin guide.

1.3 km of galleries

From the centre of the village, walk to the entrance of the cave, near the Trou de Han. A guide will lead you through the galleries where you can admire the many rooms and concretions, each more beautiful than the previous one:

- the Drapery Room
- the Trophée, a giant, 7 metres high stalagmite, 20 metres in circumference
- the Mystérieuses and their debauchery of multi-coloured concretions
- the Dome, 145 m high...

Halfway through, "Origin", a sound and light show, highlights all the beauties of the fencing room. State-of-the-art video-mapping and laser technologies evoke the history of the caves.

Leaving the cave, stop at the restaurant-brasserie and choose from the menu giving pride of place to local products. Take place on the large terrace on the edge of the Lesse to enjoy it.

Also on the estate

- Explore the wildlife park and
- Visit the PrehistoHan interactive exhibition
- Book a high-end stay in the heart of nature at the Glamping Cocoon Village.
