Nestled at the heart of the forests near Spa, by the Fagne de Malchamps, this estate opens its spaces to the public: a panoramic tower, a tree planted park with a pond and picnic area. It is also home to the Musée de la Forêt et des Eaux and to the CRIE.

Le Domaine de Bérinzenne, with its tree-shaded alleys and exceptional views of the region, is a pure invite to relax and dream. From the top of the tower, visitors can see the Fagne, sometimes all the way to the horizon, bathed in sunshine or quite mysterious partly wrapped in mist.

The Maison de la Nature

The pleasant Maison de la Nature et de la Forêt (open weekdays) provides information on the region, documentation on the local hikes and features:

- a nature shop
- temporary exhibitions
- cafeteria

It also manages the rental of the Rotonde (covered BBQ area for up to 80 persons) and of the Lilien Pavilion (reception area for up to 90 persons)

CRIE

This educational team offers a range of activities:

- animations for school groups
- trainings
- educational training for adults
- exhibitions (on water, forests, climate, biodiversity...)

The Musée de la Forêt et des Eaux

The Musée de la Forêt et des Eaux presents, through an innovating scenography, the natural diversity of the Spa-Bérinzenne region. Guided tours can be organised by the CRIE.
