Enjoying a magnificent setting in Braine-l'Alleud, to the south of Brussels, the Sept Fontaines Golf Club is one of Belgium's most well-loved golf clubs.

The estate, renovated in 1986, offers exceptional infrastructures, nestled within a luscious forest of beech trees. Its 18th century hermit castle has been turned into a sumptuous Club House, perfect for events. Its two 18 holes championship 18 holes courses stretch over a 100 hectares park and give players a variety of experiences.
